CHARLES RUFF DIED SUNDAY

Mr. Ruff Dies at Home in This Place after an Illness of Several Weeks. Prominently Identified with Town and County Matters.

Charles H. Ruff, one of Gettysburg's best known residents, died at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night after an illness of a number of weeks. He was aged 68 years and 24 days.

In his early life Mr. Ruff was engaged in huckstering and later conducted a store on Baltimore street. Following this he was elected Clerk to the County Commissioners and occupied that office for a number of years. Later he assisted in the office of the Register and Recorder and was always prominently identified with Court House matters where all patrons whom he served received the most courteous and efficient treatment.

Mr. Ruff was interested in many affairs in Gettysburg. He was one of the best and most active School Directors the town ever had. For some time he was president of the Gettysburg Building and Loan Association and at the time of his death was its secretary, having occupied that position for a long period. He was an active member of St. James Lutheran church and was a member of the Masonic Lodge and of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Ruff was married first to Miss Emma Howe who died in 1876. Two children from this marriage survive, Miss Cora Ruff, at home, and Mrs. Edward Cress, of Hanover. In November 1879 he married Miss Sarah E. Culp who survives together with two brothers and three sisters, John and Daniel Ruff, of New Oxford; Mrs. Lucy Kumrine, of Littlestown; Mrs. Daniel Ditzler and Mrs. Emanuel King, of Hanover.

He was a man widely known and liked by all who knew him. Mr. Ruff was one of the most cordial and courteous men in public life in Gettysburg and his death is a matter of the greatest regret to his large circle of friends and acquaintances.

REUNION OF MCILHENNYS

Descendants of Robert McIlhenny and Victor King Gather in First Annual Reunion at Church their Ancestors Built.

One hundred and sixty descendants of Robert McIlhenny and Victor King gathered on Saturday at the Great Conewago Presbyterian church at Hunterstown in their first big family reunion. The members of the "clan" came from many different parts of the country, some traveling many hundreds of miles to be present on the unique occasion.

Robert McIlhenny and Victor King settled near the site of the church about 1765 and their families were largely instrumental in building the present structure in which the reunion was held. The church was erected about 125 years ago and is full of memories and associations of the McIlhennys and Kings. Both these men served in the Colonial Wars and had much to do with the settlement of that part of Adams County.

Early in the morning the people started to gather and at noon dinner was served to all in the Chapel. Immediately following this the meeting was called in the church, S. M. Knox, of Philadelphia, being in the chair.

After prayer by Rev. Mr. Baker, W. A. McIlhenny was chosen president, Miss Annie Major, secretary, and Hugh McIlhenny treasurer. An executive committee was appointed, R. K. Major, William B. McIlhenny, James McIlhenny of near Knoxlyn, and James F. Bell. The following were chosen as historians, Victor King McIlhenny, of New York City; W. A. McIlhenny, of Harrisburg; Miss Fannie Bell, of Hunterstown; S. M. Knox, Philadelphia; Prof. Franklin Menges, York.

Prof. Menges read a paper on "The Early History of the McIlhennys." William A. McIlhenny, of Harrisburg, gave a historical account of his branch of the family. A history of William McIlhenny, brother of Robert McIlhenny, who settled in Western Pennsylvania was read and all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

A letter from Rev. J. B. King, of Eastford, Connecticut, was read. The will of Robert McIlhenny was read to the audience and was received with much attention. Among the articles mentioned in the will was a chest of drawers which bequeathed to his wife. The chest was at the church on Saturday and, with a number of other things connected with the early history of the family, excited considerable interest. Short talks were made by Victor McIlhenny, of New York City, William Arch McClellan, of Gettysburg, and Dr. Cobean, of Wellington, Kansas.

A vote of thanks was given to the Trustees for the use of the church and the reunion came to a close with the singing of "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

The reunion was a marked success and a similar event will be held next year at the same place.

IMPROVEMENT

Work was started today at tearing away the old pavement in front and at the side of the Court House. The new pavement will be without the old offset immediately in front of the Court House and will slope down to the Middle street side, doing away with the step which was formerly necessary. Several relics, minnie balls, bullets etc., have already been found. The new pavement will be of concrete and is being put down by Charles Lady. It will reach the entire way around to the alley in the rear of the building.

GETTYSBURG O LITTLESTOWN O

Local Foot Ball Team Opens Season by Holding Littlestown Team to No-Score Game. College Team Loses.

The Gettysburg Athletic Club opened their foot ball season on Saturday by meeting the strong Littlestown team on Kohler Field and holding them to a no score game. The showing made by the local boys is most encouraging to foot ball enthusiasts in this place.

Though playing a team composed largely of experienced players, Gettysburg held firm and the Littlestonians were unable to gain a first down during the entire game. Once in the second half Littlestown had the ball on Gettysburg's eight yard line but the locals got together and got the ball on downs.

Miserable fumbling by Gettysburg whenever the ball was in their possession prevented the locals from scoring and time after time the ball was lost in this way. Littlestown's inability to gain and Gettysburg's fumbling turned the game largely into a kicking duel between Ridinger and McCall.

Bupp starred for Gettysburg in tackling and falling on the ball. Rose made the only big gain of the game, ploughing through the line for eight yards.

For the first game of the season it was most satisfactory and good things may be looked for during the coming weeks.

U. P. 20 GETTYSBURG O

Gettysburg College opened her foot ball season Saturday afternoon on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, by being defeated by the strong team of the University of Pennsylvania, 20 to 0.

The orange and blue were completely outclassed at all stages of the game. Not once did they make a first down, only once did they hold Pennsylvania for downs, fumbling was frequent, punting was miserable and in all points Gettysburg was weak.

The first half opened with Gettysburg kicking off. A few long runs around Gettysburg's ends, which Penn soon found were terribly weak, and the ball was over the goal line. Two more touchdowns were scored before the end of the half and Penn got two goals from touchdowns. The half ended Penn 17, Gettysburg 0.

In the second half Penn ran in numerous substitutes and tried all kinds of open play. Almost every man on the team was given a chance running with the ball, quarter back kicks and runs, forward passes and other "risky" plays were tried with varying success. Once an illegal forward pass within the fifteen yard line saved Gettysburg another touchdown, the ball being taken back to midfield. Time was called with the ball in Penn's possession on Gettysburg's eight yard line, saving another score. The red and blue got only 3 points in this half on a goal from the field.

Gettysburg played pluckily throughout but were out of their class. Phillip's fumbling of punts and Empfield's poor punting contributed in no small measure to Penn's scoring.

SQUIRE ATTACKED BY GROUNDHOG

Squire Hammers Has Fierce Battle with Large Groundhog in Graveyard. Saves himself by Jumping behind Tombstones.

Squire Hammers, of Highland township, who recently had quite an experience with a buck in the bridge near Heretor's Mill, had another encounter with an angry animal on Sunday afternoon in the cemetery of the Marsh Creek Presbyterian church.

The Squire was out for his usual Sunday afternoon stroll and had taken with him his usual walking stick. To this he may attribute the fact that he escaped without injury. In his former fight he had only a tin cup with which to defend himself.

While walking through the cemetery he was suddenly confronted by an enormous ground hog Mr. Hammers says it was the largest of that species which he has ever seen. The animal at once showed fight and made for the Squire who dodged behind a tombstone. When the weather prognosticator came after him he aimed a vigorous blow with his cane but it went wide of the mark and Mr. Hammers was compelled to beat a hasty retreat to save himself from being bitten.

Two more times he got behind tombstones to await the oncoming animal and the third time managed to hit it right between the eyes.

The ground hog dropped and in a few minutes was dead. The Squire took his prey home and will have it stuffed and mounted.

WILL SEARCH FOR HIDDEN TREASURE

Virginian Will Try to Find Wealth Buried by Cornwallis.

AMOUNTS TO $2,000,000

Charter a Ship to Search For $1,000,000 In Bullion and $500,000 Worth of Diamonds Concealed by British General During the Revolutionary War.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 27.—Laughed at when he attempted to interest local ship masters in a proposed search for a sunken treasure chest in the York river, Bailly Von Wagonan, of Hanover county, Va., went to Baltimore and chartered the schooner J. E. Davis, Captain John E. Davis, and sailed from that port in quest of treasure-trove.

Wagonan stated authoritatively when he was here that he was in possession of the secret of the spot where General Cornwallis, prior to his surrender to General Washington, concealed a copper chest containing $1,000,000 in bullion and diamonds to the value of $500,000.

That the British did sink this treasure under several yards of good earth on the banks of the York river is a tradition that has been verified by the statements of various historians since the days of '76.

Several expeditions have been started in search of the buried chest, but all have failed, because, as Mr. Wagonan declared, the spot where the officers of Lord Cornwallis' staff buried the treasure has since become the bed of the York river.

The schooner J. E. Davis reached Hampton Roads from Baltimore, and after several additions to the equipment of the vessel had been made she set sail for the mouth of the Rappahannock river.

It is understood that Wagonan and Captain Davis agreed to make the expedition on half shares. Wagonan furnishing the necessary information and the master of the schooner the equipment. Wagonan is said to have acquired the secret from one of the crew of a former quest, who will be picked up by the schooner as she passes up the Rappahannock.

FIRE AT WHITE HOUSE

First Since 1814 Ruins Furnace Room of Offices.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Fire broke out at the White House and for a short time it was very threatening. It was not in the White House proper, but in the executive offices, which are being reconstructed in the president's absence.

The fire originated in the furnace room. A hot fire had been made in the furnace to dry the plaster freshly put on the walls. The furnace room was practically gutted, the blaze being communicated to the walls and roof by means of the flue.

The quick response of the firemen resulted in their soon bringing the blaze under control. The damage was slight.

So far as any one here recalls this was the first fire to occur at the White House since the invasion of the national capitol by the British in 1814, when the capitol, White House and most of the other public buildings were burned.

The outcome of his throw was that he is dead, his wife is dying at the county hospital and the baby is being cared for by neighbors.

According to Mrs. Christman, her husband had not had steady work for several weeks. She asked him for money to buy food.

"Twenty cents is all I have," he said, as he showed her a dime and two nickels.

Christman then took down a dice box. "Sixes win, aces lose," he said. He cast the dice and the two aces came up. Mrs. Christman stood near with the baby in her arms. Christman rushed at her, stabbed her and then drank carbolic acid.

INDORSES CONSERVATION

Taft Praises Chief Forester Pinchot and Upholds Roosevelt Policy.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 27.—As a result of several long conferences with Chief Forester Pinchot here, President Taft caused to be issued a statement, in which it is declared that never at any time during the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy over the conservation of natural resources has the president intended to reflect upon Mr. Pinchot.

In this statement Mr. Taft takes an emphatic stand in favor of the Roosevelt policies of conservation of natural resources.

He also assures Mr. Pinchot that his retirement would be regarded as a great loss to the administration.

Mr. Pinchot, in turn, gave out a statement announcing that he will continue in the public service, standing for the Roosevelt policies as long as he "has the strength to stand for anything."

In the meantime, however, the ill-feeling between Mr. Pinchot and Secretary Ballinger continues.

SOLDIER CLAIMS BOUNTY AS SPY

Says He Furnished Information That Decided Battles.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Claiming he furnished information on which hinged the battles of Antietam and other Civil War conflicts, George McClure, of Clarks Mills, Pa., sought additional bounty from the government as a spy, but the claim has been refused for want of any record of such service.

McClure, who enlisted on Aug. 28, 1861, for three years under the bounty act of July 22, 1861, and "not under the legalized orders of the war department relating to the payment of $300 bounty," was paid $200, and went after the remaining $100. He claimed this for "compensation for information given Major General George B. McClellan on Sept. 3, 1862, of the enemy's plans that ended in the battle of Antietam; for information given Brigadier General O. B. Wilcox on Sept. 17, 1862, of the enemy's intention to break the Union forces' center at Antietam, and for information given Union officials on Nov. 27, 1863, at Knoxville, Tenn., of the enemy's intention to capture Fort Saunders by assault."

The war department found nothing of record to show that McClure, who served as a private in Company G, One Hundred Pennsylvania Infantry, performed duty as scout or spy at any time in 1862 or 1863. The treasury department has advised him that there is no law authorizing any further payment of bounty.

TRUST COMPANIES FAIL

Two in Pittsburg Make Assignments to Banking Commissioner.

Pittsburg, Sept. 27.—The Land Trust company and the Mercantile Trust company, both of this city, did not open their doors this morning. They made assignments to State Banking Commissioner W. H. Smith. Deputy State Bank Examiner James L. White is in charge of both institutions as temporary receiver.

Lack of money is given as a reason for the assignments, a crisis being reached on Saturday when a run was made on the Mercantile Trust company.

Convicts Taken to Federal Prison.

Pittsburg, Sept. 27.—Four federal prisoners, two bankers and two counterfeiters, were removed from the western penitentiary this morning to Leavenworth, Kan., following the recent investigation of conditions at the local institution by the government authorities. Among the men ordered taken away are Herbert W. Tiers and William Montgomery, former cashiers of banks of this city.

Killed Playing "Wild West."

Sutton, Mass., Sept. 27.—While playing a "wild west" game in a camp at Singletary pond, Francis Roach, aged fifteen years, of Millbury, was shot and instantly killed by William F. Nardi, aged twenty years. Nardi has but one arm, and in raising a shotgun to his breast the trigger was caught by a torn piece in his sweater, discharging a heavy load of shot into the head of Roach.

An Easy and Harmless Way To Darken The Hair

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

PEARY WOULDN'T ASSIST DR. COOK

Refused to Allow Records of Rival's on His Ship.

Harry Whitney Says Records and Instruments of Physician Explorer Were Left in Cache at Etah—Declares Cook Told of Discovery of Pole, But Pledged Him to Secrecy.

New York, Sept. 27.—Commander Robert E. Peary refused absolutely to allow any of the records or instruments of Dr. Frederick A. Cook to be brought aboard the steamer Roosevelt and was thus instrumental in causing these records to remain in a cache at Etah, Greenland, according to Harry Whitney, the New Haven sportsman. In a dispatch received in this city by Dr. Cook, the message, which came as a response to one sent by Dr. Cook, is as follows:

"Strathcona, via Indian Harbor and Cape Ray, N. F., Sept. 25. "Dr. F. A. Cook, Waldorf, New York. "Started home Roosevelt. Nothing arrived for me. Peary would allow nothing belonging to you on board. Said to leave everything in cache at Etah.

"Met Captain Sam. North Star. Did not go back after going. Schooner bound St. Johns take steamer home. Hope you are well. See you soon. Explain all. Good shooting.

"HARRY WHITNEY." The following telegram from Mr. Whitney was received by the New York Times:

"Strathcona, Indian Harbor, via Marconi Wireless, Cape Race, N. F., Sept. 25.

"To the Editor of the New York Times: "I know not the extent of the contents of the box left in my charge by Dr. Cook to be brought back.

"No vessel having arrived for me at Etah, before the Roosevelt returned from the north, I started home on her. Commander Peary would not allow anything belonging to Dr. Cook to come aboard his ship. I was forced to leave the articles in a cache at Etah.

"On Dr. Cook's arrival at Annatok in April, 1909, he told me he had discovered the North Pole, also showing me maps and requesting me to withhold information from Commander Peary, but permitting me to say that he had gone further than Peary had gone on his last expedition.

"HARRY WHITNEY." Dr. Cook was questioned as to his view of the situation created by the action ascribed to Commander Peary, but he declined to say anything derogatory of his rival. "It may be that the instruments will arrive this year after all," he said, "and as for the records and observations, their non-arrival here makes no difference whatever, as I have complete duplicates, so that there will be no delay in compiling my story with all its details."

Dr. Cook did not appear to be greatly perturbed by the news he had received from Mr. Whitney. He hopes to see him in a very short time and hear a complete explanation of the occurrences at Etah.

Dr. Cook denied the report that he was to bring suit for slander against Peary. "There is no truth in the report," he said. "I have no intention of bringing suit. Naturally I am taking measures to have everything in order in case of necessity, but I have never even thought of filing a suit, and I wish to contradict such reports at once."

THINKS COOK IS A FAKIR

Peary Was Aware, It is Said, of His Intention to Claim Discovery of Pole. Portland, Me., Sept. 27.—It was learned from a source close to Commander Peary that the commander justifies his action of refusing to allow Dr. Frederick A. Cook's instruments or records on board the home-bound steamer Roosevelt on the theory that he had been aware for some time of Cook's intention to claim the discovery of the North Pole, and that Peary, therefore, would sanction nothing to aid this project.

Peary's forthcoming statement concerning Cook will charge that the Brooklyn explorer cannot produce shoes, sledges or other equipment that will show the wear and tear that comes from travel over the Arctic ice. This is the first intimation of any specific evidence that the commander will produce, although he has said from time to time that he has evidence enough to discredit Cook.

The Roosevelt arrived at Eagle Island, Commander Peary's home, to leave Peary's personal belongings and to receive supplementary orders. After unloading these the Roosevelt sailed for New York.

GIRL STEALS FROM DORMITORY TO WED

Runs Away From School to Join Opposed Lover.

Washington, Pa., Sept. 27.—Shipping away from the Washington seminary, where she was a senior student, Miss Mae Griffith, a member of a wealthy and aristocratic family, who lives in Darlington road, Pittsburg, boarded a train for the "Smoky City," where she met Lloyd Raymond McCoy, the two made a quick trip to Youngstown, O., and were married.

The panic stricken seminary authorities, when they learned that the girl had eluded their watchfulness, had this whole section scoured in a search for Miss Griffith.

McCoy is the son of a wealthy pottery manufacturer at Zanesville, O., but is employed now by the National Tube company at Pittsburg.

Miss Griffith and McCoy met while the latter was in college, but it is said the girl's father objected to the young man's attentions on account of the youth of his daughter and forbade McCoy to see her.

Danville, Pa., Sept. 27.—For the first time in the history of Montour county a man has been arrested and sent to jail for non-payment of taxes. The delinquent is James Dailey, an ironworker, who is three years in arrears.

The arrest was caused by the retiring tax collector, who insists that this is the first of several hundred arrests that will be made.

Dailey hasn't any money, can't get any, and says he will rot in jail before he pays up.

This total of $13,000,000 does not include the treasures from the cathedral, churches and vaults of banks.

TAFT PREACHES A SERMON

Addressed Great Audience in Mormon Temple.

AN APPEAL FOR AMITY

Asked People to Attribute the Best Rather Than the Worst Motives to Action of Others When Possible to Do So and Not to Harbor Hatred.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 27.—In the pulpit of the famous Mormon tabernacle in this city, where four years ago Theodore Roosevelt, then president, preached a long sermon on right living and the duties of good citizenship, President Taft faced an audience which he said inspired him to try to follow in the footsteps of his predecessor and deliver a preaching.

Mr. Taft did preach a sermon, text and all. The immense audience in the flag-draped edifice, the splendid musical program of operatic and patriotic selections, the enthusiastic cheering as President Taft appeared and the quick response of the audience to the points which he endeavored to impress upon his hearers, inspired him the president declared, with high thoughts of country and patriotism.

The president's sermon was an appeal for amity between the people for attributing the best rather than the worst motives to the action of others when possible to do so and not to harbor hatred or animosity.

"A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger," was the text Mr. Taft selected from the Book of Proverbs. The sermon was a homely utterance, largely made up of a relation of stories to give emphasis to the points.

Reviewed 20,000 School Children. From the tabernacle the president was driven to review about 20,000 school children. At one point along the line a thousand or more children had been arranged in a living flag, red, white and blue caps serving to outline the national emblem.

Thence the president proceeded to the Young Men's Christian Association, where he made a brief address to men. Lastly the president attended services especially arranged for him at the Unitarian church. After this unusually busy Sunday morning he left Salt Lake for Ogden, where he enjoyed an eighteen-mile ride through Ogden Canon and made his third address of the day at Lester park.

When Senator Smoot introduced the president to the audience in the Salt Lake tabernacle the cheering was so great that Mr. Taft could not begin his address for several minutes.

MINISTERS CRITICISE TAFT

Say President's Action in Salt Lake Was a Mistake.

Salt Lake, Utah, Sept. 27.—Several clergymen criticised President Taft from the pulpit. The main theme of their remarks was the president's refusal to change his plans which provided for a parade and flag demonstration of children Sunday.

Objection was also made to the president holding forth in the Mormon tabernacle. Rev. Louis Bowerman, of the Baptist church, voiced the sentiments of many of the ministers of the city when he said:

"I think the action of the president is a mistake. Of course, I believe in the policy of letting every man think for himself, but I can't see how President Taft is going to gain anything by refusing to observe the Sabbath.

"The whole proposition is the Mormons and their desire to get a boost out of the visit of the president here. Every missionary of the Mormon church throughout the world will begin to gloat over the fact that when the president of the United States visited the Utah capital he was the guest of the Mormon church. I will take the matter up with the religious press of the country and have serious comment made upon the action here of the president. These publications are in New York city, Chicago, Boston and all other important big cities in the country, and they will be universal in their denunciation."

The ministers lay the blame to the Mormon influence, into which they say the president has fallen through Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, apostle in the church.

Better take no chances on garments made in sweat shops, or crowded tenements—there may be danger. Wooltex garments are clean, wholesome, and safe.

WOOLTEX coats are cut generously full to permit freedom of motion and to allow for a child's growth—mothers will approve of that.

The styles are carefully planned to make them distinctive and yet to keep them simple and suitable for childish wearers.

The materials are of Wooltex quality—pure wool, tested—which will keep its shapeliness and give two full seasons' wear—hard wear, too.

Heaving coal into a furnace and shoveling ashes out is hard work. Besides, coal costs money. If you go to your heater more than three times in twenty-four hours, you are wasting time and labor, and throwing away coal. And the chances are that your house is not comfortable all through. You should install the

MODEL Heating System

It almost takes care of itself. Burns every pound of coal completely, getting every bit of heat out of it. Distributes the heat uniformly, by steam or hot water, to every radiator in the house. Keeps all rooms warm and cozy whether on the "windy side" or "over the heater." Makes no dust, and fewer ashes than a hot air furnace, because it burns less coal, and burns it thoroughly. Thousands are in use, saving from one-third to one-half the former consumption of coal. Quite a desirable saving.

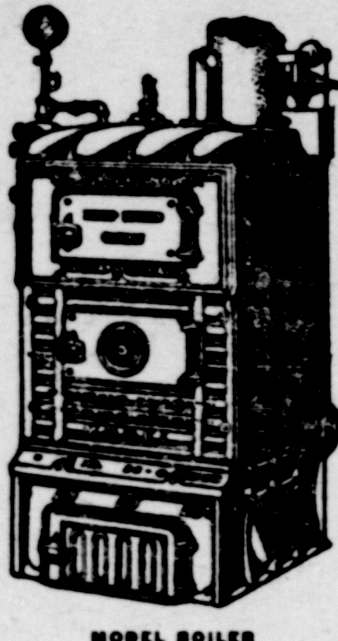

THE LEDOM RANGE

The Ledom is as good a kitchen range as the Model is a heating system—which is saying a great deal. Its grate alone saves half of the usual coal consumption, and makes it the ablest, quickest, most convenient range ever built. Don't fail to see it.
